

iTunes 11

The screenshot displays the iTunes 11 interface. At the top, there are navigation tabs for Music, Movies, TV Shows, App Store, Books, Podcasts, and iTunes U. Below the navigation is a header area with three promotional banners: Josh Groban's 'Surrender' album, the 'Downton Abbey' Complete Season, and 'The Sessions' TV show. The main content area is titled 'New Music' and features a grid of 18 album covers, including releases from Justin Bieber, Taylor Swift, Linkin Park, and others. On the right side, there is a 'QUICK LINKS' sidebar with options like Account, Purchases, iTunes Match, and My Music. At the bottom right, there is a 'TOP SINGLES' section.

What's new in iTunes 11

Apple's Entertainment Center

iTunes has been completely redesigned.

So it's easier than ever to browse & organize your music, movies, TV, podcasts and more.

It's also easier to add to your collection and play anywhere.

But first ...What is iTunes?
It's your home to all things entertaining!

iTunes is a free Apple app that lets you organize and play digital music and video on your computer, Apple TV and iPhone/iPad. It's also a store that has everything you need to be entertained. And thanks to iCloud - you can listen anytime, anywhere.

So iTunes basically consists of three parts:

The iTunes Player

The iTunes Store

iTunes Everywhere

iTunes Player

iTunes Store

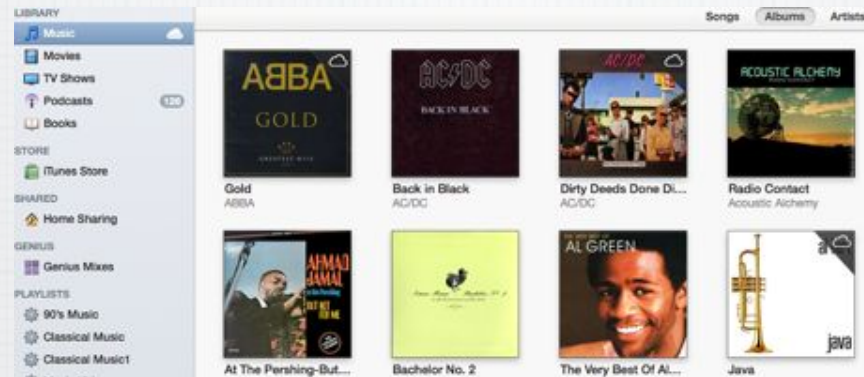

iTunes Everywhere

iTunes Player

Where all your favorite stuff is just a click away.

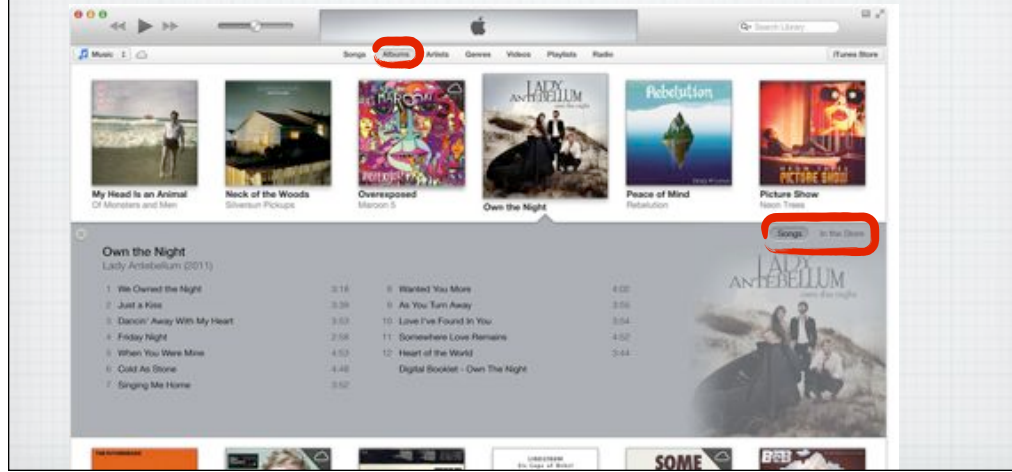

The iTunes Player keeps track of all your music, movies & TV shows in one place.

Browse, Organize & Play your music

Browse

Big beautiful views of all your music, movies & videos. Click an album it will expand in place with track listings and Store recommendations of other similar music to purchase.

Organize

With iTunes, it's easy to get your music organized. When you buy or import music, iTunes automatically adds the album, artist, song names and album art. And you can set up your own Playlists.

Play

Just click to listen to your music, watch a movie or TV show, play a podcast or audiobook.

So just what can you play on iTunes?

The buttons on the top of the iTunes screen
give you ten primary choices:

Songs - Albums - Artists - Genres - Playlists - Radio
plus Movies - TV Shows - Podcasts - Books

(The following are some snapshots of the various screens you can click on to control your music and video)

The screenshot shows a music application window with a list of songs. The 'Songs' header is circled in red. The list includes columns for Name, Time, Artist, Album, Genre, Rating, and Plays. Below the list, the word 'Songs' is displayed in a large blue font, and the text 'Click on any header to sort by Name, Artist, Album, etc.' is written in blue.

Where is List View?

Apple decided looking at columns of songs was boring
- colorful album covers are now the default view.
But you can still find the List View by clicking
"Songs" on the title bar on top.

The screenshot shows the iTunes Music Store interface. At the top, there are navigation tabs: Music, Songs, Albums, Artists, Genres, Videos, Playlists, Radio, and iTunes Store. Below these are several album covers: "My Head Is an Animal" by Of Monsters and Men, "Neck of the Woods" by Silverstein, "Overexposed" by Maroon 5, "Own the Night" by Lady Antebellum (highlighted with a red box), "Peace of Mind" by Rebelution, and "Picture Show" by Moon Train. A red arrow points from the "Own the Night" album cover to its expanded view below. The expanded view shows the album title "Own the Night" by Lady Antebellum (2011) and a list of 12 songs with their durations. A "Songs" button with a right-pointing arrow is visible in the top right corner of the expanded view. At the bottom of the screenshot, there are several promotional banners for other content.
